

Your domain could be seized by the Attorney General, or anybody with a copyright, immediately and without any due process of law, if anything on your domain contains, streams, or links to anything copyrighted or deemed related to copyright infringement.

Under the proposed PROTECT-IP and SOPA bills, sites like Facebook and Youtube as we know them will cease to exist. Streaming of copyrighted material may constitute a felony, and content sharing will be illegal. Join us in person to protest:

Senator Scott Brown's Office
John F. Kennedy Federal Building
Cambridge Street Entrance
Boston, City Hall Plaza

12:00 noon, Tuesday December 9th