Dear Coordinator:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. subsection 552, I am requesting a copy of the "internal Panetta review", which is referenced in this 12 March 2014 article in the Guardian newspaper: <http://www.theguardian.com/world/2014/mar/12/cia-senate-row-documents-feinstein-brennan>

If there are any fees for searching for, reviewing, or copying the records, please notify me before processing if the amount exceeds $50.00. I fall into the "Other" fee category, as described on <http://www.foia.cia.gov/fees-and-waivers-foia>

If you deny all or any part of this request, please cite each specific exemption you think justifies your refusal to release the information and notify me of appeal procedures available under the law.

If you have any questions about handling this request, you may telephone me at (home) [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Revilak

Dear Mr. Revilak:

On 25 March 2014, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 16 March 2014 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for a copy of the internal Panetta review. We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We are currently processing a request for the same records from another requester. Once our research and review of that request are completed, we will forward to you the same CIA-originated records, if released. In accordance with our regulation, as a matter of administrative discretion, the Agency has waived the fees for this request because we believe the fees will be minimal. We have a substantial backlog, which we are working diligently to reduce, so we are unable to estimate when we will complete our review. However, we will notify you once the processing of the original request is complete.

Sincerely,

Michele Meeks

Dear Mr. Revilak:

This is a final response to your 16 March 2014 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for a copy of the internal Panetta review. As you will recall, in our 31 March 2014 letter, we informed you that we had already initiated searches for this information in connection with an earlier FOIA request received prior to yours that was being processed in the litigation stage. We cross-referenced your request to the earlier one in order to send you any records that were found to be releasable.

As a result of our searches undertaken in connection with the earlier request, we located material that was determined to be currently and properly classified and must be withheld in its entirety on the basis of FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and (b)(5). Exemption (b)(3) pertains to information exempt from disclosure by statute. The relevant statutes are Section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, and Section 102A(i)(1) of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended. In accordance with our regulation in Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulation at 1900.42(c), because the material is the subject of pending litigation in the federal courts, you are not entitled to appeal this determination administratively.

Sincerely,

Michael Lavergne
Information and Privacy Coordinator
